TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have known FRANK DEVRIES for almost eight years, during which time he has worked for Amerispec South in Calgary, Alberta and has always been my inspector of choice.

Home Inspectors walk a very thin line, particularly where they have been asked to perform a home inspection by the selling Realtor. As a Realtor, I understand the importance of honesty, integrity, truthfulness and tact and over the past eight years, Frank has performed many, many home inspections for my buyers and has always performed brilliantly. Buyers appreciate Frank's openness and his easy manner, always putting their mind at rest over every issue. He takes the time to go over the details, never alarming them, always explaining how to resolve every single problem.

The same holds true for Sellers. We've come across a few challenges in that department, and yet Frank has always managed to smooth their ruffled feathers, assuring them his job is not to crash the deal but to simply explain to the Buyer how things work and how to fix them when they don't.

To say Frank is the consummate professional hardly does him justice. He's simply the best home inspector in Southern Alberta and we are going to miss him very, very much.
